Mr. S.R. Nikam gave an introductory speech, reflecting on the significant contributions of Savitribai Phule, particularly her efforts in breaking social barriers and providing education to the underprivileged. His remarks set the tone for the rest of the program, emphasizing the importance of Savitribai Phule's legacy in today's world.

Following the introduction, Principal Dr. Vasant P. Mali delivered an inspiring speech. He spoke about the enduring relevance of Savitribai Phule's vision and her transformative role in championing women's rights and education. Dr. Mali emphasized how Savitribai's courage and determination to educate girls and oppressed groups laid the foundation for modern education in India. He urged the students to draw inspiration from her life, reminding them that education is the most powerful tool for social change. Dr. Mali concluded his speech by encouraging students to continue striving for equality and inclusivity, values that Savitribai Phule lived by.
